Fort Worth Dressage Club

The Fort Worth Dressage Club had a busy past year.

After co-hosting the last summer meeting with DDC, we proceeded with a scribing clinic put on by one of our members - Dyanna Lawson - which she does yearly, a gourmet lunch and reviewing On the Level videos with copied tests - we have been able to supply scribes to our own schooling shows, Recognized shows, eventing shows and Region 9 championships. Kendra Menzies Kent hosted a clinic at her Caballo Ranch and a cook-out for members -we were full and also had auditors.

FWDC put on a Fall schooling show at Willow Draw in Weatherford - we had a great turn-out - we had members come in the night before show for a trail ride and one of our club members husbands - Renee Smith and her husband Ab - brought in his cooking crew and we had great meals Friday and Saturday for all exhibitors.

Our Year End Christmas Party and silent auction brought out a large number of our membership for a wonderful evening. Money from the silent auction went to our Scholarship Fund. We also voted in our 2010 Board. We had many special Year End awards - including our In Memory picture frames with horses who have past away this past year, Most Supportive Significant Other, Most Improved Rider and Horse of the Year.

Southern Comfort Farm and owner Pegge Kinslow hosted FWDC for a low cost clinic with their head train Anthony Schmitz - clinic was full with lots of auditors. One of our members husband - David Scott - did a bar-b-que for everyone and it was a great learning experience and fun day. FWDC put on a summer schooling show at Willow Draw in June and we were full - Trinity Valley Pony Club provided concessions and we drew in the eventing crowd and even offered gaited classes.

FWDC is planning a pool party and cook-out in place of its monthly July meeting at one of our members houses.

One of our members, Leslee Covington -did an interview on Dressage Daily Radio about our club.

FWDC has plans to put on a Jr/YR clinic at Caballo Ranch with Kendra Menzies Kent.

FWDC has plans for an Adult Camp in October at Proud Meadows.

FWDC has a vast video and DVD library for its members -and we buy new DVD's we feel will benefit our members.

We also offer a Scholarship Program for members based on volunteer hours.

Some of us will travel to Houston to volunteer for the Championships like we have done for several years.

FWDC finished the year financially sound - thanks in part to members in the Dressage community who have donated their facilities and time to our Club.

Education: In March we had a clinic with Jeff Moore. The clinic on Horse and Rider Bio-mechanic was very well received. Everyone enjoyed learning how important bio-mechanic are for the rider and horse. We had 9 demo riders and 29 participating auditors. We were able to get a grant to help with this clinic.

In June we had our 3rd Annual Adult Camp. The camp was 3 1/2 days and was such a great chance for people to come and totally focus on their dressage education. Lodging, meals, stall, and lessons were included in the camp price. We had 25 campers and 5 auditors. Two clinicians returned from last year. Sarah Martin and Louis St. Amour. Gigi Nutter was our third clinician and worked extremely well with the other two.

In July at our summer meeting ODS is hosting a continuing education program for judges and "L" graduates. This program is "Upgrade Your Judging Eye" Ida Anderson Norris "S" judge will present this program. We have 31 attendees.

ODS is currently putting together an "L" program for 2011. ODS will host all 3 sections.

Schooling Shows: ODS recognizes 15 schooling shows each year in the state of Oklahoma. These shows give our membership an opportunity to experience a show environment close to home. More than 148 people attend these shows annually. ODS has hosted a Schooling Show Championship for the past three years. Last year this Championship was held in Shawnee, OK. We're proud of our members who participate in these shows and their Championship is as close to a recognized show as we can make it.

AGM Meetings: We have 2 AGM meetings annually. They are in January and July. This year for our Summer meeting we are touring the OSU Veterinarian clinic in Stillwater, OK. There will be several vets on hand to lecture on new technology. Our board meets every 6 weeks to do the everyday business of running a club of this size. This meeting is open to the membership. Our membership numbers run between 210-230 annually.

Recognized Show: We have one recognized show per year and one of our chapters has a recognized show each year.

Southern Eventing and Dressage Association

We kicked off the New Year with our annual awards lunch at Benedict's Restaurant. This year's theme was all Black and Gold. Very timely as our New Orleans Saints made history the next weekend.

SEDA has sponsored 6 showing shows and 2 Recognized shows since January.

This winter we rebuilt and improved our cross country course at Lagniappe Farm (damaged during Hurricane Katrina). We had our first schooling horse trials since 2005. Fleur De Leap Horse Trials was held this spring and we have another scheduled for the fall.

We organized a Freestyle Clinic with Cynthia Collins, a Dressage clinic with Linda Strine and had 2 members ride in the Region 9 USDF Adult Clinic with Charlotte Bredhal Baker.

We awarded a junior and an adult educational scholarship to a deserving SEDA member. We offer this scholarship twice a year.
